The Chair thanked Karon for the informative presentation.

5. Perceptions of Safety

Mr. Crosby shared the Perceptions of Safety Model Draft Framework on screen and advised that it is also available in the November 18th meeting summary that was provided with the meeting package and will be kept with the minutes. The Perceptions of Safety Model Draft Framework includes existing initiatives and new ideas for each of the following:

- Visibility
- Interactions

- Accessibility
- Communication
- Community Collaboration

The framework will be brought forward for further discussion as required. Anna shared some comments around accessibility and having an additional discussion session as outlined on the framework. The TPCCC referred to the CBC coverage on crime rates on transit across Canada and the links will be forwarded for the TPCCC's information.

6. Chair/Co-Chair Nominations

Taryn provided a brief overview of the process to date and the subsequent recommendation to extend Karima's term as Chair and Valerie's as Vice Chair. Accordingly, the TPCCC unanimously passed the following motion:

It was MOVED and SECONDED

THAT the Metro Vancouver Transit Police Chief's Community Council extend the election of Karima Jivraj as Chair for a term of two more years and extend the election of Valerie Clement as Vice Chair for a term of two more years.

All in favour/APPROVED

7. Membership Update – Karima

Karima acknowledged Dean Barbour from Fleetwood BIA who is stepping off the TPCCC at this time. Karima shared a brief overview of the process of bringing new members onto the TPCCC. Karima has drafted a policy for consideration and will send it out for the TPCCC's review/feedback. It would formalize the process and allow for transparency.
