WHO WE ARE

The Metro Vancouver Transit Police is the only dedicated policing agency in Canada that serves multiple jurisdictions and is dedicated to the provision of policing the entire transit system in Metro Vancouver. Servicing an area crossing twenty-two municipalities and one First Nation; in combination with seventeen independent police agencies and RCMP detachments. Transit Police is an ever-growing Police Force with 204 Police Officers, 24 Community Safety Officers, and 106 Civilian Professionals.

Our officers ensure transit community safety, spread out over 1,800 square kilometers, on:

- 148 km of Rail
including SkyTrain, Canada Line, and the West Coast Express
- 63 Stations
across the SkyTrain and West Coast Express systems
- 245 Bus Routes
approximately 2,000 buses for Coast Mountain Bus
- 1 Passenger Ferry
the SeaBus between Downtown Vancouver and North Vancouver

With an expanding transit network across Metro Vancouver, demand for police service is growing. The fully approved and funded Broadway Subway extension will add six kms of rail and five new stations by 2027, and the Surrey Langley SkyTrain extension will add 16 kms of rail and eight new stations by its anticipated completion of 2029. Combined, over 100 additional kilometers of track will need police service upon completion.

Our agency takes a strategic approach to transit safety, working to create a feeling of safety for people that use the transit system and for the 8,000 transit staff members it employs. We work to reduce crime and disorder through the use of data, intelligence, and reports from the public. We are proud to work in partnership with regional police departments, TransLink, and other transit community partners.
