

METRO VANCOUVER TRANSIT POLICE

RECRUIT POLICE OFFICER – APPLICANT QUESTIONNAIRE

AZ040

V1May2023

These questions form part of our selection process and provide assistance to the Department determining whether you would be capable of meeting the requirements of employment as a Recruit Police Officer.

It is important you answer each question accurately as false, incomplete or incorrect information could result in your disqualification from the selection process. Information provided or collected will be held in confidence and subject to applicable privacy legislation.

Please read all the questions carefully and answer every question. If the question is not applicable, indicate by answering N/A. Answer all questions in FULL DETAIL, and if space is insufficient for longer answers, use a separate sheet of paper. Your answer must include the WHO, WHAT, WHERE, WHEN, WHY and/or HOW for any question that you have answers for. All questionnaire packages that are not filled out in detail will be returned to the applicant and may cause the application process to be delayed or the application to be closed.

We insist that your answers be neat, legible, complete and in your own handwriting.

Below is an example of how a question should be answered:

Question: Write in detail about the last time you drove when you thought you were over the legal alcohol and/or cannabis limit or that you felt it was unsafe to drive.

In the month of October 2017, I attended Brown’s Restaurant at 215 Newport Drive, Port Moody, for my friend John Snow’s birthday party. Throughout the evening, between 8:00 p.m. and 11:30 p.m., I consumed three pints of beer, two rum and cokes and one shot of whiskey. I left the event and drove myself and one other friend, Viola Jones, from the restaurant to my residence at 212-3157 Oxford Street, Port Coquitlam. The contact phone number for John Snow is (604-331-0017) and Viola Jones is (778-516-8989).

APPLICANT:

I have applied for employment with the Metro Vancouver Transit Police (MVTP) and authorize the release of information deemed necessary to determine my suitability for employment with the Metro Vancouver Transit Police.

I understand a condition of employment is the collection of information provided during the selection process. I have willingly signed consent forms necessary for the collection and verification of said information.

I certify the information contained on my resume or provided during the recruitment process is true and correct. I understand any false or misleading information provided on my resume, supporting documentation or during the selection process will be grounds for my disqualification and for my termination of employment.
